Dear Patty,

I finally got in touch with D. Jackson just before noon to-day. She must have been busy yesterday because she didn't return my call.

After some consideration she said she could arrange to have us shown thru the building. She said not to make it before 4:00 pm. I suggested that any that can't meet us for lunch might meet us there at 4:00. She said she might even stay to see see herself at that time. She also said that the buildings won't be in too good shape at this time as they are being used for exams for the previous 2 weeks. I said not to worry about that.

I also got in touch with Julia and she said she would return her letter right away.

Her husband was in Australia & she had waited for his return to discuss it with him. She will be here for part of it anyway & is willing to help.

I just phoned Frances McConnell again and she still said no she didn't want to cut her husband's week-end up. cl said to ask him & she said if she did he would say go ahead but she didn't want to do that.

cln the second letter give my phone number & then this can be a central connection centre or something. HV8-3784. You may also say that cl will be able to put up 5 or 6 as the family will be away. So anyone is welcome.

The menu just came from The Guild of All Cuts. cl will enclose it but please return it & cl will order from it. You can check which one you think we should order - or shall we leave it open, alt all sounds good to me.

I have been trying to get in touch with Mrs Rayner but she is out of town & not expected back until to-morrow. I don't think she will be in town on our week end, but if she is I will let you know as soon as I find out, otherwise take it for granted that she won't be here. Maybe we should arrange something else for Sunday as it doesn't look as though there is going to be enough stuff to have a tea for them.

Sincerely

Adrienne

P.S. I decided not to have a head table, nor a long table
We will have separate round tables - OK. What about place cards or mementa of some kind.

Dear Patty,

HU83784

Here is a collection of notes to bring you up to date.

- 1) Luncheon varified, - menu changed to cold cuts (same price) as I had to have chicken for dinner
- 2) Mary Dawson not coming - has sent her sketch.
- 3) Fran Christie will not be able to make luncheon, but will come to the next. She & Marsh staying at Park Plaza
- 4) Elinor Walker now unsure of coming because of illness in family.

- 5) Fran McConnell now attending luncheon only, because of pressure brought to bear by Carol Hendry
- 6) Had a nice letter from Win with her sketch - sorry not to be able to come.
- 7) Miss Layton will try to come for tea. Mrs Raymer the same. Mrs Marriott will be there at Julia's
- 8) Have not made reservation for Sun. dinner. There will be time to do that on Sat. I don't think there will be many left. Ed says dinner at Ports of Call would average about $7.00 each or less.
- 9) Dinner here on Saturday is being catered for and will be about $4.00 each I am having 182 my cleaning girl in to help.

- 10) Miss Layton wondered if Miss Somers had been written to - you did, didn't you? Is she coming? If not I think we should get some sort of card to send her signed by everyone. Perhaps the same for other stuff who don't come and also for Win.

Should we give Miss Jackson a corsage or something to show our appreciation for her cooperation & help?

- 11) Other stuff either can't come or are as yet undecided

- 12) What about a special reunion cake here or at Julia's?

- 13) How will we collect the money 9 183

I think it would be better to collect in one lump ~~sum~~ for everything except drinks, for everything that each girl is going to attend.

If we have money over it will take care of putting out the news letter.

- 14) Try to find your old song sheet I have found mine, & bring scraps if any. Tell anyone else you are in contact with, I have 38-39

M.E.S. AMIES. but not the other.

- 15) I have taken care of publicity in the papers.

- 16) Kay Reed & Dorothy Forsyth are also staying at a hotel I think.

- 17) No one staying here yet.

All for now

Love, Adrienne 48.4
